SCHOOL MAZE

Let's walk to school with Amelia. Can you follow her route? Remember to stop at the drugstore for paper, the library to return a book, and the shoe repair shop to leave your shoes. Good luck!

MATH FUN

Break the math code and learn the name of the serious illness that hospitalized Amelia.

$$(N) = 7 - 2 - (E) = 4 \times 6 - 2 - (E)$$

$$U = 7 + 5$$
 $M = 30 - 17$

$$A = 81 \div 9$$
 — $I = 5 \times 5 + 6$ —

$$\bigcirc$$
 = 8 x 8 \longrightarrow \bigcirc P = 22 - 7 + 2 \longrightarrow

BREAK THE CODE

Break the code and discover in which state Amelia made her solo flight.

MAKE NEW WORDS

Amelia was an English teacher at Boston's Denison House. How many words can you make from the words English teacher?

ROUTE OF AMELIA'S LAST FLIGHT

- May 20, 1937—Oakland, California—Flight began. Approximately 27,000 miles for the flight.
- May 21—Tucson, Arizona—Left engine caught fire after refueling. Blaze quickly extinguished, and only small repairs necessary.
- 3. May 22-New Orleans, Louisiana-Overnight.
- May 23 to June 1—Miami, Florida—Final repairs and adjustments to Electra.
- June 1—San Juan, Puerto Rico—First 1000 miles of flight and first stretch of ocean crossed.
- 6. June 2-Caripito, Venezuela-Overnight.
- 7. June 3-Paramaribo, Dutch Guiana-Overnight.
- June 4—Fortaleza, Brazil—Reached after flying over 950 miles of jungle and 380 miles of ocean.
- June 6--Natal, Brazil-Electra loaded with 900 gallons of gasoline for 1900-mile leg over South Atlantic.
- 10. June 7-St. Louis, Senegal, French West Africa-Overnight.
- 10a. June 8—Dakar, Senegal—Two-day layover to rest and study weather conditions and maps.

- 11. June 10 Gao, Mali Overnight.
- June 11 Fort Lamy, Chad, French Equatorial Africa 1000 miles from Gao. Overnight.
- 13. June 12 El Fasher, Anglo-Egyptian Sudan Overnight.
- 14. June 13 Khartoum, Sudan.
- Massawa, Eritrea.
- Assab, Eritrea (Ethiopia) Two-day layover.
- June 15 Karachi, India (Pakistan) Two-day stop after Electra spanned two seas – the Red and Arabian – on 1950-mile flight from Assab. Mechanics from Imperial Airways and Royal Air Force instrument specialists put the plane back into top condition.
- June 17 Calcutta, India Overnight. After 1400-mile flight from Karachi.
- June 18 Akyab, Burma Overnight.
- 20. June 20 Rangoon.

- 21. Bangkok.
- 22. Singapore Overnight. Reached after battling torrential rainstorms.
- 23. June 21 to June 27 Bandoeng, Java, Dutch East Indies An American engine specialist, F. O. Furman, and a crew of mechanics worked three days on Electra's engines. (On June 24, Amelia and Fred flew to Surabaya, but returned to Bandoeng because of engine and navigation-instrument difficulties. The repairs took two more days. There was no indication of the exact nature of the work of Furman or of why he happened to be stationed at Bandoeng.)
- June 27 Koepang, Island of Timor (Indonesia) Overnight. After five-hour flight from Bandoeng.
- June 28 Port Darwin, Australia Two-day layover. (Parachutes were shipped back to States because they would be of no ure on long over-the-water flights. No other reasons were given for the two-day stop at Darwin.)
- June 30 and July 1—Lae, New Guinea—About 7000 miles remaining.
- The next hop to Howland Island would be the most difficult: 2556 miles over open water.
